O'CITIAN

Published by

THE 1958 SENIOR CLASS

The

OHIO CITY-LIBERTY

HIGH SCHOOL

OHIO CITY, OHIO

DEDICATION

In appreciation for their guidance and cooperation given to the class of 1958, we are honored to dedicate the "O'CITIAN" to:

Mr. James Buchholtz for his tireless efforts, and his helpful encouragement, during the three years he was our class sponsor and director of our Junior Class Play. At times our success as a class was doubtful, but with his encouragement and hard work, we were able to attain our goals. We, the class of '58, wish him the best of luck in the future and wish to thank him for his help in the past.

Mr. Lester Latta, Jr. for helping us plan our future. Mr. Latta has been the Executive Head of our school for the past four years. We have looked to him for guidance. The Class of 1958 extends wishes for his continued success in guiding and advising the students of Ohio City-Liberty High School.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT
OF THE CLASS OF '58

To whom it may concern, we the graduating class of 1958, realizing we must part with our teachers, classmates, and good times, do hereby declare this our last will and testament.

To the teachers we wish to leave a little peace and quiet.

To the Juniors we will our positions as Seniors and our ability to work together.

To the Sophomores we will our textbooks, assigned seats, and orderly lockers.

To the Freshmen we will our good times in high school in hopes that they can keep up with all the activities.

I, Dora Ainsworth, do hereby will my interesting notebook to Rex Moonshower, and my likes for football and basketball to Jean Sallee, and my good times to my brother, Don.

I, Norma Ainsworth, do hereby will my ability to study to Mary Thompson in hopes that she does a better job than I did.

I, Phil Ames, do hereby will my ability to get out of study hall to Don Ainsworth and my locker to anyone who can clean it up.

I, Marilyn Blossom, do hereby will my ability to have one boy friend at a time to Gerry Clouse, and my good times in high school to my brothers, Don and Jim, in hopes they can keep up my talking average.

I, Helen Carr, do hereby will my ability to play in physical education to Donna Ainsworth and hope she does a better job playing than I did.

I, Harold Dull, do hereby will my parking space to anyone who can stay 20 feet away from the sidewalk, but wish to keep W.P. for myself.

I, Janis Eller, do hereby will my ability to get along with the guys from York to anyone who can have as much fun with them as I have had, and all my good times to my brother, Raymond.

I, Royce High, do hereby will my ability of getting along with Mr. Holmes to Roger Ricketts, and my driving ability to Bart Sidle.

I, Kay Kline, do hereby will one slightly used cheerleading outfit to any one who can have as much fun at it as I did, and my ability to get up at 8:20 and make it to school by 8:35, and all my good times to my brother, Dan.

I, Homer Kraner, do hereby will my ability to get along with Mr. Holmes to Roger Ricketts, and my wrecked Ford front end to Tex Rider to straighten out in case he needs it.

I, Jill Krugh, do hereby will my ability to catch on to jokes fast to Connie Chaney.

I, Betty McHugh, do hereby will my bashfulness to anyone that wants it.

I, Charles Merkle, do hereby will my ability to get good grades in English to Harry Debolt, and my ability to get out of study hall to Jay Clouse.

I, Linda Mottinger, do hereby will my ability to keep quiet in class to my friend, Deanna Fry.

I, Judy Rowland, do hereby will all the fun, enjoyment and positions I have had in school to those who feel left out.

I, Shirley Snyder, do hereby will my pixie and long socks to anyone who has enough nerve to wear them, and my ambition to be a football coaches wife to Jean Sallee, but wish to keep my ear for myself.

I, Nancy Tribolet, do hereby will my good times to my brother, Gary, and my excess height to Joan Moore, but wish to keep a certain Bill for myself.

I, Marvin "Buck" Walls, do hereby will my ability to play basketball to Paul Sutton in hopes that he can better my thirty-plus average.

I, Tom Witten, do hereby will my good times to my sister, and my height to Jay Clouse

CLASS HISTORY

The Class of '58 started high school in September, 1954, with our thirty-two members and Mr. Buchholtz as our sponsor. For the leaders of the year the class elected Marvin Walls, President; Charles Merkle, Vice-President; Judy Rowland, Treasurer; and Kay Kline, Secretary.

In September, 1955, having lost ten of the thirty-two members we began our sophomore year with twenty-two members. They are: John Ainsworth, Bill Carr, James McHugh, Bob Stutz, Gene Brown, Rodger Norton, Nancy Sidle, Kathy Schnitz, Kenny Thompson, Don Chaney. Again our sponsor was Mr. Buchholtz. That year the class chose Marvin Walls, President; Charles Merkle, Vice-President; Jill Krugh, Treasurer; and Judy Rowland, Secretary. The outstanding event was the selection of our class rings. Later we chose our Class Colors, mint green and white, and our Class Motto, "The Door to Success is Labeled Push."

In September, 1956, we took our next-to-the-last step towards graduating with Mr. Buchholtz as our sponsor. We had lost Kedar Army which left a total of twenty-one for the beginning of our Junior year. The leaders of that year were Marvin Walls, President; Phil Ames, Vice-President; Shirley Snyder, Treasurer; and Jill Krugh, Secretary. On the second day of school, we received our class rings. During the year we gained one new student, Homer Kraner and lost two more, Rosie Amweg and Barbara Adelblue. Our sponsor, Mr. Buchholtz, directed our class play, "There's Always A Murder." On May 10th we had our Prom with "Somewhere Over the Rainbow" as our theme.

In spite of our having only nineteen members for our Senior year, we are happy to say we are Seniors at last. Our leaders for this year are Phil Ames, President; Charles Merkle, Vice-President; Marilyn Blossom, Treasurer; Kay Kline, Secretary; and Nancy Tribolet, Yearbook Editor. Mr. Leiendecker our sponsor directed the Senior Class Play "Atta Boy, Walt."

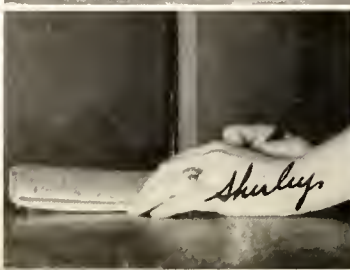

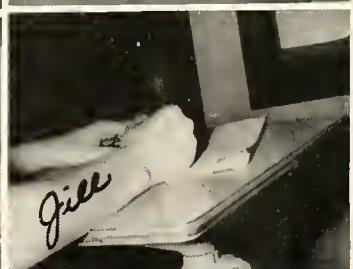

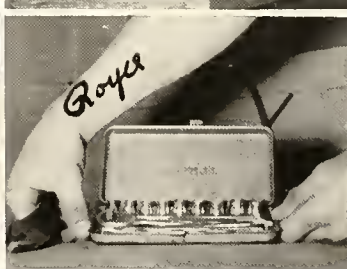

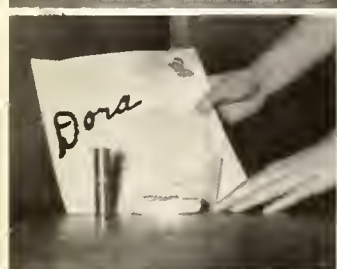

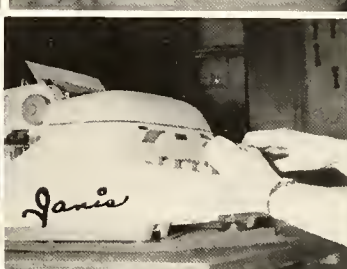

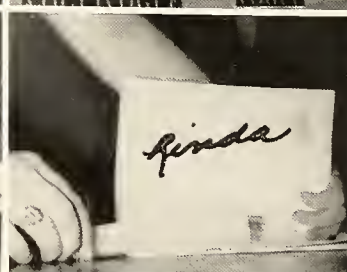

Our money-making projects for our four years of high school have been bakesales, rummage sales, suppers, ice cream socials, selling magazines, and having the concessions at ballgames.

OUR FUTURE LIES IN

HANDS

CLASS POEM

Charles Merkle is the "brain" of our class;
We think he's a real nice lad.
He'll be in college by next year,
And we're sure he'll choose a good career.

Shirley Snyder is carefree and full of fun;
She's always calling everyone "Hon."
We chose her to be our Homecoming Queen
of '58'
When it comes to boys she really does rate.

Marilyn Blossom is Editor of the Totem Pole;
Getting the news in on time has been her goal.
She's always been short and small,
But she's well liked by us all.

Harold Dull is short, not tall;
He's always friendly to us all.
When it comes to work he does his share;
In his eyes you always see that certain glare.

Linda Mottinger is a friend to all;
She's the one to have around if you want to have a "ball."
She doesn't shun when there's work to be done;
This girl likes to have fun.

Betty McHugh is sort of shy,
But she'll catch her guy by and by;
She never gossips about anyone;
We think she's lots of fun.

Royce High is a farmer to be;
He'll have success just wait and see.
He's always fun to have around;
In his two-tone Chevy he's usually found.

Kay Kline is noted for her smile;
We think she's really quite a gal.
She's always on the beam
When leading cheers for our team.

We're glad we've had Mr. Leiendecker as sponsor this year;
So for him we'll give a cheer.
He's been helpful and a lot of fun;
So, thank you, Mr. Leiendecker, for the things you've done.

We've worked hard for Graduation Day,
And we're a happy group, I'm glad to say.
I know them all, and I think they're fine;
I'm Dora Ainsworth the writer of these lines.

Phil Ames has been the leader of our Class
of '58';
He's helped plan activities, their time and date;
He's always willing to lend a helping hand
When things happen that hadn't been planned.

Nancy Tribolet is our Yearbook Editor;
We know we could find none better.
She thinks a lot of her guy Bill
One of these days she'll be saying, "I will."

Janis Eller is always happy and gay;
We like her kind and friendly way.
She's assistant Editor of our Yearbook
And does her part of the work.

Buck Walls is our great basketball star;
As a coach he'll go far.
We hope he'll go on to fame
When he plays at college basketball games.

Judy Rowland is our Peony Queen candidate;
When the queen's chosen, we hope that she rates.
She's always well groomed and neat;
As one of our class mates she's hard to beat.

Helen Carr is one that never has much to say,
But she'll succeed when she goes her way.
She's one of the girls that lives in town;
She's real nice to have around.

Tom Witten is really a nice guy;
He's never afraid to pitch in and try;
Most any work he does quite well;
We think he's real swell.

Jill Krugh is a very nice lass;
She's one of the active members of our class.
She's everyone's friend-yes, indeed-
A future secretary she plans to be.

Norma Ainsworth is the next is line;
She thinks her Don is quite fine
A housewife in the future she will be Just you wait and see.

Homer Kraner has curly hair and blue yees;
We think he's a really nice guy.
He's not too shy and not too bold;
He's a good worker-so we've been told.

MARVIN

WALLS

"BUCKY"

The Senior Class of '58 is proud to dedicate this page of our yearbook to one of our classmates, Marvin "Bucky" Walls, and outstanding 5'11" guard.

As a junior, scoring 39 points, he broke the previous record of 36, set by Charles Putman in 1954. This year he broke his own record by scoring 40 or more points seven times. His high score for the season was 50 points scored against Wren.

During the season he made 249 field goals out of 449 attempted for a fabulous percentage of 55.5. At the free-throw line, he made 212 out of 249 attempted for a percentage of 85. His final season average was 33.6 points per game to lead his team to 12 wins against 9 losses.

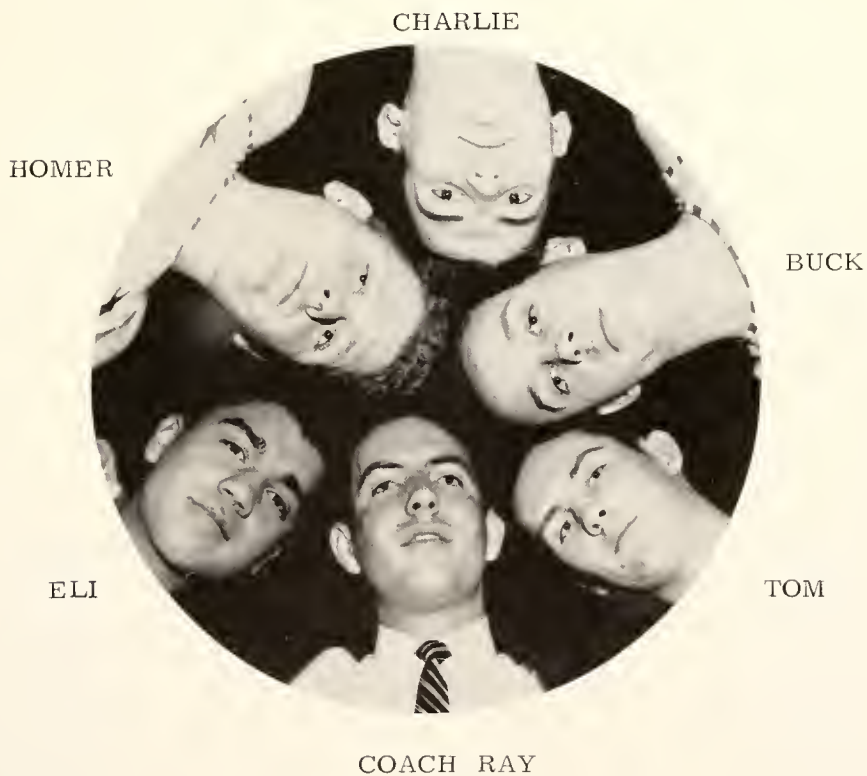

He has achieved many honor during the season. Among them was that of being chosen for the first team on the Lima Lands All-Area Team.

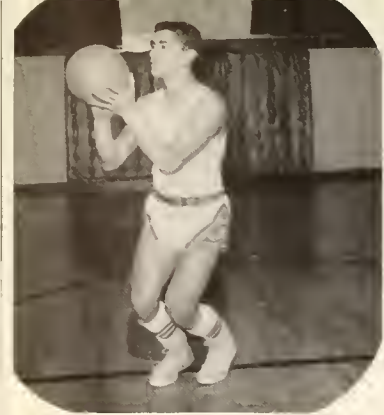

The members of the class would like to congratulate Bucky on his past records and to wish him success and happiness in the future.
